Secretary Lie Starts On Trip To Meet Stalin

Leaves New York On Peace Mission To Soviet Premier

By PIERRE J. HUSS
NEW YORK, April 22.—United Nations Secretary-General Trygve Lie sailed today on a peace mission to Soviet Premier Stalin, confident that renewed "great efforts" can end the cold war.

Lie, carrying an outline of American views given to him by President Truman two days ago, sailed on the Queen Mary accompanied by several U. N. aides. The U. N.'s top official warned that the world not only must try again to eliminate the dangers of the cold war but said the peoples of the world are certain to back their governments in the search for peace.

Plans Consultations

In London and Paris, Lie intends to consult with British and French leaders on his self-appointed mission to Moscow. He also will confer in London with Philip C. Jessup pending the arrival of Secretary of State Dean Acheson for the conference of the big three western foreign ministers.

Lie stressed his belief that the U. N. has overcome every crisis and remains the world's best hope for peace. He said:

"The world must try again to bring the cold war to an end. The longer this cold war lasts, the greater the harm it does to both sides and the greater the danger to the world."

"It may take a long time to complete the liquidation of the cold war. Many steps certainly will be required. The most important will be to use all the peace-building and conciliation resources of the U. N. We need to make new and great efforts to reduce the tensions between now and next September, when the assembly meets."

Churchill is scheduled to open his attack Monday at the budget proposals submitted this week by Prime Minister Clement Attlee's Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Stafford Cripps.

A major onslaught is expected by the Conservatives under direction of Churchill, especially against the gasoline tax which would hike prices 10 cents an imperial gallon. Churchill definitely has decided to take the floor in the House of Commons and this decision to speak is regarded as an advance warning to the Laborite ministers that the opposition plans to vote in strength against the tax proposals.

Churchill and his so-called "shadow cabinet" will make a final decision this weekend on how far the Conservatives will go in forcing what would be tantamount to a vote of confidence and could force Attlee and his cabinet to resign.

Churchill To Open Attack

Plans To Challenge Laborite Budget

LONDON, April 22.—(INS)—Former Prime Minister Winston Churchill mapped a plan today to challenge British Laborite budget proposals in a move which could bring about the downfall of the Attlee government.

Demonstration For Truman

President Sees New Plane Developments

EGLEN FIELD, Fla., April 22.—(INS)—President Truman was given a demonstration of America's most advanced warplanes starting at dawn today at Eglen Field.

Jet fighters embodying features few non-military men have even seen were sent into the air at the major training base to provide Mr. Truman a show window of American airpower.

The president flew to Eglen Field from Fort Benning, Ga., for the second day of his four of military installations. Yesterday he was shown artillery innovations and jet F-80's in a mock attack on infantry obstacles.

After viewing yesterday's demonstration the president intimated to his associates the combined air and ground force units were "unbeatable."

Expect Clear Indication Of Soviet Purpose Soon

By JOHN A. REICHMANN

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 22.—United States experts are convinced today that Russia will give clear indications in May whether she wants to continue the cold war or provoke a hot war.

The experts believe Russia will decide within another 40 days whether to go on with the provoking line of conduct that has reached its height in recent weeks or go into a shooting war. It may, it is believed, the Kremlin will have to act on the vexing problem of Marshall Tito of Yugoslavia, the wayward satellite.

If no move is made against the Yugoslav dictator then, officials will be convinced that the Soviet Union is unwilling to risk the chance of all-out warfare.

President Truman told the nation's top military leaders at Fort Benning, Ga., yesterday that he is convinced the United States will never touch off a third world conflict. He expressed confidence that

U.S. Accused Of Preparing For War By Soviet

By JAMES E. BROWN

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, April 22.—Russia accused the United States today of "madly preparing for another war" in the midst of increased Soviet-American tension.

The Moscow newspaper Pravda, in an editorial in the wake of the Kremlin rejection of American protests against the shooting down of a U. S. Navy plane, declared:

"American imperialists are madly preparing another war." Pravda took the occasion of the 80th anniversary of the birth of Lenin to issue the latest Soviet blast.

The editorial, professing peaceful intentions to the Soviets and again accusing the United States of a bent toward war, made no specific mention of the charged atmosphere related to the Baltic air incident.

An official Soviet government note yesterday declared flatly that the plane which Russian airmen fired on was a B-29 Superfortress and not the American Privateer which has been missing with 10 men since April 8.

American Secretary of State Acheson said in Washington that the world situation had become more critical as a result of the Soviet attitude in this case and because of several other recent actions.

Senate Spy Probers Plan To Summon Key Witness

By WILLIAM THEIS

(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Senate spy probers are prepared today to explore all aspects of the Amerasia magazine case and will call one of its key witnesses named by Sen. McCarthy (R. Wis.).

McCarthy, on a radio program, identified the man as Frank Belaski, a former security officer for the office of strategic services who conducted the first raid on the Amerasia offices in 1945.

Edward P. Morgan, chief counsel for a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee investigating McCarthy's charges, said the group had intended to summon Belaski prior to the Senator's demand.

Morgan explained that Belaski's name arose when Chairman Tydings (D. Md.), announced that the subcommittee would investigate charges that secret state department documents were channeled to the Amerasia office.

McCarthy, who said he had given Belaski's name to Sen. Hickel (R. Iowa), three weeks ago, declared that the operative could "shed considerable light" on the Soviet espionage apparatus in the U. S.

The Amerasia probe was scheduled as Owen Lattimore declared that Louis Budenz' description of him as a Communist was "gossip and hearsay" and called for a full investigation of the "China lobby."

Lattimore vigorously denied Budenz' charge made before the Senate group Thursday that he was a member of a Communist cell seeking to influence U. S. policy in favor of Chinese Reds.

TOKYO, April 22.—(INS)—Weary searchers, caught in a dense mountain fog, waited for dawn today to resume the hunt for an American military transport plane with 35 persons aboard which crashed on a flight from Manila to Tokyo.

The search was halted for the night when the army's 14 rescue parties, struggling over rugged mountain slopes, were advised that the fog blanket would not lift before daylight.

The plane crashed about midnight Friday and several residents of the area reported seeing the burned wreckage on the south slope of Mount Tanzawa, some 50 miles west of Tokyo.

Twenty Seven Passengers The plane's 27 passengers included a trade mission of five or six members headed by Frank E. Pickle, 40, of Chicago, which was returning to occupation headquarters in Tokyo after completing a barter agreement between Japan and the Philippines. Others were military personnel.

PA NEWS OBSERVES

Lawrence county was enveloped in fog early this morning, in some places it being so heavy that traffic on the highways was greatly slowed down.

Plans are under way for resurfacing of the paving on Sampson street, from Grant street to the city line. It is reported that this street is heavily travelled, due to being part of route 422 in the city.

In a note in this column yesterday it was inadvertently stated that the new gas line to be constructed through the county would pass west of Pulaski, crossing the Pulaski-New Wilmington road at the top of the hill from Pulaski. This should have read east of Pulaski, rather than west as stated.

Roy Brownlee, of Hubbard, former resident of the Pulaski section, reports to Pa News in reference to the heavy snow seen here Thursday, that 49 years ago Friday, on April 21, 1901, this district was deluged with 21 inches of snow.

Local church goers will observe Eastern Standard time Sunday for the last time this summer, as next Sunday, April 30, the churches move up to fast time schedules. There should be little confusion in making the switch this year due to the advance warnings given to local residents.

Good progress is being made by the highway department in their cement patchwork on Route 18, south of the city. The past months proved hard on the road and the work is welcomed.

The American Hospital Association requested the forming of the northwestern Pennsylvania Association of Hospital Auxiliaries, and Mrs. H. G. Wunderle, president of the Women's Auxiliary of Abington Memorial hospital, Abington, Penna., accorded the distinct honor of chairmanship to Mrs. William L. Strawbridge to organize the group.

Together with the aid of Mrs. T. Ray Mack, president of the Butler county Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, Butler, Pa., who is co-chairman, work got underway for this worthy organization.

Mrs. Strawbridge presided at the meeting in Oil City. R. Youngquist, formerly of the Jameson Memorial hospital, and now administrator of the Buhl hospital, Sharon, Pa., spoke to the group, offering suggestions and ideas as to how efficient Hospital Auxiliaries can contribute to patient comfort and needs of the hospital.

Other speakers at this time were T. R. Jones, vice-president of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Association, who is also the administrator of the Kane, Pa. Hospital; and Miss Taylor, administrator of the Grove City hospital.

An interesting and informative paper, written by Mrs. H. G. Wunderle of Abington, Pa., was read, which listed the benefits to be derived from organizing Hospital Auxiliaries.

Other local persons who attended the meeting were: Mrs. Jessie Stenger, Mrs. John S. Olson, and Mrs. Paul Forney, all from the New Castle Hospital Auxiliary.

The next meeting has been scheduled for the latter part of May, and this will be held in the Buhl hospital, Sharon, Pa. The invitation was extended by administrator of the hospital.

They were Major Mary D. Schureman and Mrs. Alice Krueger, wife of Lieut. Col. Hienz Krueger of Philippines command headquarters, and their daughter Martha and son Robert. Col. Krueger was accompanying his family.

Also aboard were Robert F. Tarleton, Tokyo representative of the International Business Machines company, and Col. Franklin L. Rash, 53, of headquarters staff, a West Pointer and a native of Delaware.

Search planes were readied to join in the ever widening hunt at daylight but a weather forecast indicated they might be hampered by rain.

Treacherous Area
The mountain slopes where the search was concentrated yesterday were described as "most treacherous" even for hikers in the best of weather.

The transport plane carried 27 passengers and a crew of eight. Among the passengers were four members of one family and a U. S. government girl employee.

U. S. air force headquarters in Tokyo retraced an earlier announcement that a search party had reached the plane. The latest announcement said the wreckage of the big C-54 had not been sighted either from the ground or the air.

The transport left Manila Friday and stopped at Naha on Okinawa to refuel before taking off for Tokyo. It was flying in the direction of a field on the outskirts of the Japanese capital when it crashed into the mountain.

BATTLE THAT YOU CAN JOIN

Many challenges face the American people today, but none, we think, is more dangerous to our way of life than the deadly disease cancer which annually takes a toll of 200,000 Americans. It killed almost 15,000 in Pennsylvania last year.

To meet the ever increasing threat of an enemy that strikes rich and poor, weak and strong, with impartiality, a small group of doctors and laymen organized the American Cancer Society in 1913. From that humble beginning when $10,000 was raised by popular subscription, the society has grown into an organization that operates 61 divisions in every state and the territories of Puerto Rico and Alaska. This year it will attempt to raise $14,565,000 in April for its three pronged program of research, education and service. Pennsylvania will be asked to subscribe $830,000 of this amount.

Through research the society is attempting to find the cause of cancer and more effective methods of prevention, diagnosis and cure.

Its educational program is aimed at saving an estimated 67,000 persons who each year die needlessly of the disease because they do not know the common danger signals of cancer and the importance of early diagnosis and prompt, adequate treatment.

The service program is conducted principally by volunteers in each county who work under medical supervision. Here an attempt is made to solve the problems of chronically ill patients and those for whom there is no hope of cure. Volunteer services include making and distributing cancer dressings; providing transportation for patients to and from hospitals and clinics; maintenance of loan and gift closets from which patients can obtain sickroom equipment and comforts, and a home visitor service through which trained volunteers perform nonprofessional duties.

When you give a dollar to the American Cancer Society, a quarter of it pays for nationally planned research; 60 cents stays in Pennsylvania for the state and county programs and the remaining 15 cents pays for exhibits, pamphlets, movies and other tools for professional and public education and the administration of other projects on the national level.

The parade of statistics and achievements in cancer control credited to the American Cancer Society is impressive, but more impressive is the manner in which the American people are tackling the cancer problem. It would be impossible to accomplish so much with so few dollars in the fight against cancer if it were not for the aid of the volunteers such as those in our own community who give unselfishly of their time and energy. Our country owes its greatness to a philosophy that moves these volunteers to join the Cancer Crusade. Not all of us can render personal service but those who can't, can and should throw their financial support into the battle against our No. 2 enemy that will kill 22,000,000 living Americans unless we all unite in a common effort to defeat it.

ANTI-SNORKEL SHIPS

The United States isn't the only country racing against time to find a solution to the fast, snorkel-type subs which are being virtually "mass-produced" by Russia.

Britain and Canada have assigned top priority to sub detection work and to the building of speedy anti-submarine vessels. For the time being, these vessels undoubtedly will be converted from other forms of naval units, such as destroyers and old-type sub chasers.

However, these are best stopgap measures. A British naval authority recently conceded that "the answer to the 20-knot submarine has not yet been produced."

At the same time, however, he noted that the United States, Canada and Great Britain are working on the problem and pointed to one aspect of the fast sub that works in behalf of the defenders.

That is the fact although the newest subs can travel 20 knots underwater, this speed can be maintained for only a relatively short time, so that if the anti-sub vessels are able to keep contact, they will then be in a position to make their attack on the sub.

Traffic problems are far from being new headaches. Remember, Noah had to park the Ark on a mountain top.

A New York magician has failed to cash in on the best disappearing act of his career. Thieves in New London, Conn., stole all his stage equipment.

The former Carmencita Franco of Spain is one bride who won't need to worry about trying to prove that two can live as cheaply as one, not for awhile, anyway. She received wedding gifts worth $7,000,000.

An American Museum expedition has discovered that by playing phonograph records near them, African lions became upset and short-tempered. Understandable—disc jockey programs affect us the same way.

At this time of year the suburbanite has to think up four different sets of excuses—for not (1) helping with spring cleaning, (2) painting the screens, (3) taking down the storm windows and (4) spading the garden.

Great Britain May Ask Aid

Indications mounted today that Great Britain soon may ask the United States to take over some of her military commitments far afield on the grounds she cannot afford them all and contribute to European defense as well.

The usually well-informed London Daily Mail has reached this conclusion.

It has been voiced as a definite possibility by international observers for many months. While reaction of the United States to such a proposal is difficult to predict, the Mail says that Britain will soften the request by asking commonwealth nations to aid also.

In Difficult Position
The British, struggling for post-war recovery and fighting against the grave disadvantage of gold and dollar shortages, are in a difficult position regarding European rearmament.

Spokesmen for the continental nations have charged or implied that Britain is placing her own interests paramount in defense as well as economic arrangements.

The British do not deny that commonwealth preferences and like must come first in anything to do with trade, imports and exports but they do insist that they are sincere in present and future contributions to the mutual European defense system.

If a transfer of some military responsibilities in the Pacific and elsewhere is requested, this will be an admission in itself that Britain is hard put to fulfill commitments everywhere.

There is an interesting field for speculation as to what the commonwealth can contribute to overall defense.

Canada Does Not Figure
Canada, of course, does not figure in it. The Royal and Canadian Navies are as one and the Air Forces are closely intertwined while military agreements with the United States complete a situation in which the Atlantic is as safe as anything can be.

Australia has a fast, modern Navy. But that huge island continent has an immense sea frontier of its own to patrol. India also has some excellent naval units. But in the sub-continent also the coastline is of tremendous length and with menacing Communist units close by, India must think first of herself and of Britain second.

New Zealand has some small sea forces. Malaya has none although there is a steady call in London and Singapore for establishment of a native Malayan Navy sufficient in size to protect the peninsula from any recurrence of the invasion made a decade ago by Japan.

So far as land forces are concerned, the Indian Army is pinned down with that of Pakistan along the borders of Kashmir, and there they seem destined to stay indefinitely.

Nothing To Contribute
Malaya has nothing to contribute in this regard, as shown by the stream of men and munitions sent out from the British Isles to bolster Singapore and Hong Kong.

Some arrangement might be made to create "spheres of control" and equip individual areas to defend themselves.

But this looks far into the future and the nations of Europe, now deeply involved in an intricate and interlocking system of self-defense and mutual assistance, are thinking of the immediate present.

Under this plan, France and other continental nations are to bear the brunt of land warfare in event of any new conflict.

Britain shares with the United States primary naval and air responsibility. In considering transfer of some outlying commitments, the British doubtless have in mind the tragedies that occurred at the beginning of the Pacific war.

The British forces were spread paper thin over vast areas of the world.

Inadequate Air Protection
There were some powerful warships. But inadequate air protection for them. The rusted hulks of the battleship Prince of Wales and the battle cruiser Repulse, at the bottom of the South China sea off the Malayan coast afford the best conceivable proof of this.

Although military and naval talks among the western powers are proceeding on an unbroken scale, the question of divided responsibility may arise when Secretary of State Dean Acheson goes to London next month for talks with Foreign Secretary Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schumann.

It can be expected that the British will avoid any appearance of shirking its job. But the argument may be presented that they again are too widely scattered in their commitments and that some sort of equitable reshuffle is in order.

Folks Of Fame

Giuseppe Verdi, Italian composer, born on Oct. 10, 1813, at Le Roncole, Italy. He wrote his first symphony when he was 15. Going to Milan to complete his studies, the Conservatorio rejected him. His first opera, Oberto, Conte di San Bonifacio, was produced in 1839. His Nabuccodonosor placed him in the front rank of Italian composers. Rigoletto, Il Trovatore, La Traviata, Aida, Otello, etc., are all his compositions, with some not so well known in today's productions. He died at Milan Jan. 27, 1901.

Marshall Field was born in Conway, Mass., in 1835, and spent his boyhood on a farm. He was a dry goods clerk in Pittsfield, Mass., from 1852 to 1856, then went to Chicago, became a junior partner, later senior partner, then head of a wholesale and retail dry goods business. So successful was he that he founded a gift of $1,000,000, a great museum in Chicago, and also gave money and land to the University of Chicago. He died at his home in Chicago in 1906.

State Police Say:

That wasn't an atomic bomb you heard, that was the explosion of the myth that men are safer drivers than women! Yes, men, it's true, and its your own fault. It has been observed that female drivers are likely to show better manners and are more courteous than the male driver, and can be depended upon to be more patient in heavy traffic and more likely than not will show by proper signal what they are going to do. Only 6 per cent of the accidents in the United States last year were chargeable to the female driver.

POLITICAL 'MAN MADE SNOW' EXPERIMENT

Washington Calling

(By Marquis Childs)

Backing For Gen. Eisenhower

WASHINGTON, April 22—

While boom may not be the word to describe it, the movement to make General Dwight D. Eisenhower president of the United States is now taking form. It has the backing of some very formidable names, all of whom will be kept out of the news until such time as an open and all-out campaign has been decided upon.

In this beginning phase the analogy of the iceberg holds good. What is to be seen above the surface is negligible in comparison to what exists out of sight and out of sound.

If Eisenhower's principal Republican backers have their way, the general will go on about his duties as president of Columbia university. Those duties take him to various parts of the country where he shows himself to friendly audiences with the natural and winning charm that is one of his chief characteristics. The general will certainly not be encouraged to make speeches that could be considered in any ordinary sense political.

Build-Up To Continue

But the thorough build-up will continue. This will be in the pattern of the Life magazine article by Quentin Reynolds, portraying the Eisenhower as the able executive of a great university.

The blowup touched off by Senator Joseph McCarthy of Wisconsin may well have hastened the quiet preparations for the eventual Eisenhower boom. That blowup threw a new light on the division within the Republican party over foreign policy.

The statement of Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio that he backed McCarthy in the hope that if McCarthy missed one target he might hit another one was a shock to many Republicans who have gone along with the bipartisan foreign policy. Others felt that, regardless of the outcome of the McCarthy affair, the Taft statement would alienate independent voters who had believed in Taft's integrity even when they differed with his views.

Solidified Conviction

This reaction solidified the conviction in a large and important segment of the party that Taft must not be the party's nominee in 1952. Obviously, Eisenhower was the only man who could prevent Taft's nomination. And it seemed increasingly evident to many of these Republicans that the general was the only man who could defeat President Truman running for a third term.

Here, plainly, a titanic struggle is foreshadowed. While the Taft forces now have a strong grip on the party machinery, a great deal will depend on the outcome of the election this fall.

In Ohio recently I talked with one of the shrewdest and most knowledgeable politicians in that state who is, in general, sympathetic to Taft and his views. Although he declined to be quoted by name, this politician expressed the following view:

"In the past three months a change has taken place. In my opinion Taft's majority in November will be smaller than anyone now expects. There is no doubt in my mind, however, but that he will beat Ferguson."

Taft's Position

This was on the assumption that the Democratic nominee would be State Auditor Joseph Ferguson. It was made on the further assumption that Taft would get some votes of conservative Democrats. If he gets by with a small majority, Taft will be in a much less strong position to take up his claim on the presidential nomination two years hence.

Among Eisenhower's closest associates are the influential men on the board of trustees of Columbia university. Foremost among these is Thomas J. Watson, head of the International Business Machines Co. As the two columns of small type devoted to him in Who's Who attest, Watson has the widest connections both in this country and abroad.

Eisenhower gets advice and counsel from elder statesman Bernard M. Baruch. Although he has been a lifelong Democrat, Baruch could conceivably end up in the Eisenhower camp because of the break between Baruch and President Truman which occurred in the 1948 campaign.

Baruch is close to former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes, who has denounced the Truman Fair Deal program and is running for governor of South Carolina. Byrnes would be the perfect liaison agent for the southerners who want to break with Truman and vote for a "nonpolitical" candidate like Eisenhower.

Most of this is, of course, this in the speculative stage. A great many unexpected things may happen. For Eisenhower the role his friends and admirers have cast him in is not easy. He must be patient on a monument, indifferent to the pleadings, proddings and prying of a public and politicians. And at the same time he must go on being head of a body of students and teachers who are not always too happy at having a general and a potential candidate for president at the head of their university.

They Say

WASHINGTON—President Truman: "We must make ourselves known as we really are—not as a communist propaganda pictures us. We must pool our efforts with those of other free peoples in a sustained, intensified program to promote the cause of freedom against the propaganda of slavery."

BUFFALO, N. Y.—Vice President Barkley: "We know the Republicans are opposed to communism and are honest enough to say so. Let them be honest enough to say we are."

NEW YORK—Maj. Gen. Kirke B. Lawson, deputy chief signal officer: "We cannot rest but must now prepare to be so strong that a war will not start."

WASHINGTON—Ceil Palmer, British author, speaking of his homeland to the D. A. R.: "There is very little welfare and much state."

Would Share Wedding Costs

By PAUL GALLICO

PARIS, April 22.—Cruising across the Atlantic out of sight of land for five days I had the opportunity to meditate over the plight and complaint of a friend of mine, the proprietor of a large family which included a couple of daughters, the last of which celebrated her wedding last winter, and which same rites not only bent the paterfamilias, it darned near broke him.

And the result of my study of this situation has been to institute the herewith prepared inquiry into why it is a father should be penalized for having daughters by being stuck for the wedding tab. What, say I, is the matter with the daddy of the groom also shelling out a few kopecks to cover the bill from the florist, the caterer and the modiste?

Can't Question Sincerity

Nor can you question my sincerity or bonas fides in this matter since I am the begueter of two sons who shortly will attain the age and circumstances where they will take the dread step, and if the poppa of the girls they take to wife digs up this piece, rubs it under my nose and suggests I kick in with some bonos to pay off the vultures who fatten on weddings, why no one can say that I have showed bias in this matter, or that I didn't bring my fate upon myself.

Now, in the case of my friend who just went to the cleaners so that his daughter might be married in the style to which he would like the groom's family to believe she was accustomed, there is less case to his plaint than many other fathers, for having married off a son so well, he at least got a kind of Mexican stand-off since he didn't have to stand that rap.

But I say to you, what about the fellow who has a daughter, or two or three, or nothing but daughters? Why should he, as he crosses the threshold from middle to old age, stare certain ruin in the face through being solely responsible for coughing up for all of the shenanigans necessary to get a girl satisfactorily entered into the state of Holy Wedlock?

Phooey On Tradition

You will quote me tradition and I will say to you—phooey on tradition, are we or are we not the masters of our destinies? You will say, "But look, the guy with the daughter is getting rid of her when she marries off. He doesn't have to support her any more. Ain't that worth something?"

Sure, it's worth something, but what about the father of the groom? He also gets the kid off his hands and doesn't have to support him any more.

Time was when the unfortunate father of a female child not only had to take the cost of wedding expenses, but parcel out a substantial cash payment to the groom as well as a kind of an inducement or bribe to take the babe off his hands. This is a throw-back to the old days and an agrarian economy where a daughter was considered to be a distinct liability to a family since she could neither fight nor pull a plow.

That's All Changed Now

Well, of course that's all changed now. A guy with a daughter now has a potential high bracket wage earner in the house as well as a WAVE, a WAC, or a SPAR, or whatever branch of service she happens to choose when the enemy is at our gates. And if she is a pip he doesn't need to give anyone bakshesh to take her on and give her a home. I say, let the two fathers get together and split the bills for liquor, entertainment, blossoms and the fee for the Dominie, right up the middle.

A daughter must be a wonderful thing to have, says I, out of a ripe imagination, and no father should be compelled to face his wife and newborn babe with a sickly grin on his kisser just because the sex has been announced as the distaff side. "It's a girl," ought to be the signal for as great a jubilation shout as the other, "It's a girl", but today, the father is faced with almost certain bankruptcy the day his little girl takes her vows. This might be inclined to prejudice him against the wee one. I say this kind of thing must stop and cry for justice and equity for the fathers of girls.

Can Hold Many Jobs

Today a girl can be a congresswoman, a senatress, a governess, she could be president if she could collect the votes. She can head a department store, plead at the bar, heal the sick under an M. D.'s license, write novels and plays, act on the stage and make money at practically everything a man can. Why, the father of the groom ought to pay to get such a treasure.

Also times and costs have changed. Back in the old days when a father threw a party at the wedding of his ever-lovin' daughter, he just went out and killed a pig to roast whole along with a couple of sheep, broached a couple of barrels of local lightning from his apple trees that he had laid away for the winter, and Maw made with the pies and cakes. Total out of pocket, thirty-two cents for flour and shortening.

Today you call in one of those chappies from the big catering houses, and just the way he sneers when he walks in the door precludes any possibility of your ordering the $500 wedding. Before you are through he has talked you into the Five Grand deal and that's only for grub, champagne and a supply of butlers.

This is too big a load for one family to carry, I maintain. Come on, you fathers of both bride and groom, how about getting together like brothers and lending one another a helping hand?

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

We talk a lot about our priceless American privileges that the citizens of no other nation possess. We are proud of our freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom of assembly, freedom of the press.

And rightly so. But there is another freedom—perhaps the most widely used but the least talked about—the freedom to make fools of ourselves.

You don't have to be a Senator or a Congressman to use this freedom. All you have to do—any of us have to do—is to make a lot of noise about something that is sillier than something anybody else has said or done—and, bing, you land on the front page or get on "We the People."

For instance, take Garry Davis, who has renounced his American citizenship and declared himself to be a "Citizen of the World." He recently returned to the U. S., having failed to make an impression on Europe.

He is the son of a good American family. His brother enlisted in the U. S. Air Force during the war, and after seven successful missions over Germany, crashed-landed in Sweden and was interned. He died for his country.

But young Garry, a former small-time actor, has different ideas.

In his own words he calls this country "that part of the world community now called the United States of America."

He gives as his residence "The Earth."

He declares—and these are his words:

"In regard to becoming an American citizen again, since this step involves no change in my state as human being on our planet, meaning simply my consciousness as a world citizen with membership in the world community, I see no necessity for it. I intend to remain stateless."

So Garry Davis wants to be a citizen of the world! Greater men than he have tried it and failed.

To be a citizen of the world one must first be a good citizen of his country.

The dictionary defines citizen as "a member of a state; a person, native or naturalized, who owes allegiance to a government, and is entitled to protection from it—opposed to alien."

The best and the only way to be a citizen of the world is to be a good American citizen.

As an American to set a good example to other countries, to live as only Americans are privileged to live, to hold the American way of life up to others as the ideal way of life—that is world citizenship.

To denounce American citizenship is a betrayal of America. It is saying to the rest of the world "I have no use for America and the American way of life. America is not worthy my allegiance."

Library Makes Annual Report

Federated Club
Donates $1,025

New Castle Free Public Library submitted its 39th annual report recently to the Board of Trustees, for information and approval. Librarian, Miss Alice Sterling, made the report.

A very noteworthy gift to the library was received from the New Castle Federation of Women's club in the amount of $1,025. The library was one of three beneficiaries to receive the gift on the dissolution of the Federation charter. Memorial gifts of money to be sent for library books totaled $120.95.

Circulation at the library as compared with 1948 gained 3%. The proportion of adult non-fiction to the total adult circulation increased in 1950. The main library gained 8%, and Mahoning branch gained 5%. However, both Eastside and Southside lost 15%.

The Poetry Group and the Great Books Forum continue to grow in attendance and participation. Both are sponsored by the library.

Collect Over-Due Books
Through the cooperation of the city police department, a car was furnished and an officer-driver and in this manner, the librarian was able to collect 59 long overdue books. The library gratefully thanks the police department for their cooperation.

During the year, staff members gave book reviews and book talks to Beta Sigma Psi, several P.T.A. groups and Current Events class. A summer children's vacation reading club was also organized to stimulate summer reading.

Nineteen schools, colleges and public libraries were represented at the fall meeting of the Four-County Library club to which the library was host last October.

The library extends appreciation to all who have in any way been of great help to the library. The loyal and conscientious service of the staff was also commended.

BABY BOOKS

Baby does not need to be very old when he begins to handle books. Perhaps it is well to have flexible covers which will not tear easily. He will probably chew books long before he reads them. Colored pictures seem to help the cause along. Mother tells him stories about the pictures and when he learns to talk he will tell all the stories himself.

Baby needs a lot of help to learn how to use his mind and his body. It seems to be a good idea to begin the training of both of them at a very early age. It is wonderful how much baby knows at three months. Proper training is all important. It is pretty hard to correct bad habits.

FLESH FOODS

Protein is a very important part of our diet. Eggs, milk and meat are our main sources of protein. Meat is a good provider of protein. Most people like meat if it is properly prepared and cooked.

There are so many ways of cooking it that everyone may be suited. It seems that meat digests better if it tastes good.

Some people prefer beef, some prefer fish. Some will not eat anything but pork. For all practical purposes, meat is meat. Eat whatever kind you like best and cooked the way you like it.

Rose Avenue Board Plans Activities Of P.T.A. Unit

Rose Avenue Parent-Teacher executive committee met at the home of Mrs. Samuel Rashid, Hazel street, recently. Mrs. Rashid conducted the business.

Mrs. Wesley Mann stated that the speaker for the evening meeting of April 25 in the school auditorium would be Dr. Joseph C. Clymonds, supervisor of the fifth and sixth grade training teachers of Slippery Rock college. His topic will be "Child Guidance" and John Cornelius, principal at Rose avenue, stated that Dr. Clymonds would be worth hearing. He is a graduate of Slippery Rock college and received his master and doctor's degree from Pitt. An open question and answer period will be held after his talk.

Election Officers
An election of new officers will be held, with these officers to be installed at the May meeting. They will hold office from September 1950 to June 1951.

A short business meeting will be conducted, at which time an auditing committee will be named. Suggestions will be taken for the amount of a donation to be sent to the P.T.A. home which is being built in Chicago. This will be donated from the treasury with the approval of the unit.

Roll call is to be taken and parents and friends in the auditorium at the time of roll call will be those counted to help. The membership drive closed with a total of 348 and with seven rooms having 100 per cent representation. These rooms are the Misses Mildred Smith, Lucille Lutton, Verlee Armstrong, Ellen Gallagher, Ada Tillia, Louise McElroy and Laura Blucher.

Mrs. Rashid asked each committee to be sure to have its written report in and sent to its respective head state chairman by May 15, as is requested in the Pennsylvania Parent-Teacher.

Conference Saturday
It was also stated that eight delegates are going to the South-west District Conference to be held Saturday, April 22, in the George Washington hotel, Washington, Pa. They are the Mesdames Thomas Booher, William Stickle, Richard, Samuel Rashid, William McKee, Horace Tressler, and two teachers, Mrs. Ellen Gallagher and Miss Mildred Smith.

At the close of the April meeting, Mrs. Thomas Booher, social chairman, and her standing committee and volunteers of the fourth grade mothers will serve a tasty lunch.

At the close of the business meeting, the group was invited to the dining room for a light lunch, served by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rashid. Spring flowers centered the attractively appointed table.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Here are a few stories I picked up on my recent visit to the Ozarks: An arthritic mountaineer came into a small and totally unexpected inheritance and decided to buy a second-hand jalopy to ease the burden of his declining years.

The cheapest he could find in all Missouri was $135, but the dealer reminded him, "You get five good tires thrown in free; they haven't gone more'n 30,000 miles." "Forget the tires," said the mountaineer. "I don't want any on my car. When I'm riding I want to know it."

The same character had his own system for telling the hour. A neighbor drove past the shack and called out, "Know what time it is, Jonathan?" The mountaineer studied the shadow on his porch, shifted the terrace in his cheek, and answered, "Bout four and one-half planks till supper time."

An Eastern visitor was brought to admire the paintings of Vervena Abernathy, the Grandmas Moses of the Ozarks. "What an original talent!" gushed the Eastern lady. "How I wish I could take those glorious colors home with me." "You're going to get your wish," cackled Vervena happily. "You're sitting on my palette."

Clifford Miller On Carrier Boxer

As a crew member of the aircraft carrier USS Boxer, Clifford A. Miller, fireman, USN, of 707 Wilmington avenue, recently participated in joint United States-British Naval maneuvers. The exercises were held in the South China Sea off Luzon, Philippine Islands, by the Seventh Fleet, the 13th Air Force, and units of the British Far Eastern fleet.

CAR USE

AKRON, O.—(INS)—Big city traffic congestion and a serious shortage of adequate parking facilities are discouraging motorists from greater use of their cars. According to James J. Newman, vice president of B. F. Goodrich, these inconveniences are the chief reasons why the average American motorist uses his car only 400 hours a year out of a possible 8,760.

"Is it too Late, Doctor?"

SOONER OR LATER, one out of every five living Americans may ask his doctor this question about cancer.

The Answers may be: "Yes... I'm afraid so..."

But, today, the doctor can say to increasing numbers of cancer victims, "No, it is by no means too late... There is much that we can do... In fact, your chances for recovery are good."

This heartening reply reflects the great progress of medical science against cancer. And there is every reason to believe that, as the years go by, the ancient dream of conquering this disease in all its forms will be realized.

Cancer research supported by the American Cancer Society has already yielded new surgical techniques and improved methods of using x-ray and radium. More recently, research with radio-active isotopes has revealed facts about processes heretofore completely hidden in the body's cells. It has also given scientists new knowledge of hormones and certain anti-cancer drugs—thus making possible more effective control of some types of cancer.

Part of the money you donate will support research that may save millions of lives. Won't you give—and give generously—so that sometime in the future doctors may never have to face another patient and say: "I'm afraid it's too late?"

Remember: Cancer can strike anyone, but you can strike back. There's hope—if you give for research and the other vital activities of the American Cancer Society.

Churches Will Observe Fast Time April 30

Dr. Robert M. Patterson, president of the New Castle Ministerial Association, announced today, that observance of Daylight Savings Time will be started in all churches of New Castle, Sunday, April 30, one week from Sunday.

In the past some confusion has existed among the churches as to what Sunday the observance of the new time should start. Members of the Public Relations Committee of the Ministerial Association met and decided that all churches of the city should observe the Daylight Savings schedule.

The announcement is being made today by the ministerial head in order that ministers may know what to announce to their congregations tomorrow in reference to the time problem. Churches having evening services in many instances start their services 15 minutes later in order to assist the members in getting there in ample time. This is left to the discretion of the individual pastors, Dr. Patterson stated.

Sunday, April 23 will be the final observance of Eastern Standard Time with the churches reverting to its use in September when the time change is made again.

Discuss Joint School DistrictConsolidation In Wampum Area AiredDiscussion of the advantages of a joint school district, which would include Wampum borough and the school districts of Big Beaver, Taylor township and Chewton Independent, were continued at a meeting of the directors of these districts in the Wampum high school Friday evening.

The directors of the districts affected were unanimous in their opinion that they would like to secure the advantages which such a consolidation would bring, but just what plan would be the most suitable for the district was not definitely agreed upon.

Further information was secured by the directors on what they could do, and this will be taken back to the different boards, following which they will meet again May 12 to discuss the project further.

Headed Plot
To Rob Him

FLINT, Mich., April 22.—(INS)—A Flint, Mich., grocer nearly beaten to death in a holdup allegedly plotted by his 22-year-old son declared today he hopes the boy "rots in jail."

Michael Isaac, 54, was robbed of $6,690 in his home yesterday by two youths captured a few hours later in company with his son, Charles.

Police said the younger Isaac master-minded the crime and then waited in the getaway car while his two companions, one 17 and the other 19 years old, forced their way into the house.

The grocer was beaten over the head with a hammer when he returned home carrying the money in a bank bag.

Charles told police he knew his father carried large amounts of money to cash checks at his grocery.

The mother, Helen, 47, was locked in a closet with a two-year-old grandson while the young thugs ransacked the house. She said she could never forgive her son, and added:

"I don't ever want to see him again. I know now he's on good." Both parents forgave the boy when he stole $1,000 from his

REPUBLICAN LEADER SPEAKS!

A Testimonial from Honorable Joseph W. Martin, Republican leader in the House of Representatives, to the worth, the ability and the fitness of

LOUIS E. GRAHAM

Candidate for Renomination at the Primaries on May 16 Next

Joseph W. Martin, Jr.
14th Dist. Massachusetts.

OFFICE OF MINORITY LEADER
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

February 22, 1950.

Honorable Louis E. Graham,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Lou:

I am very glad to learn that you are to be a candidate for reelection.

You have been a great bulwark in our fight for economy, a balanced budget, sanity in government and, in other words, for real Americanism. We need men of your vision and courage for these two eventful years ahead which may well determine what kind of a future, we are to have in this country. The forces which would destroy the America of opportunity and equal privileges will wage an aggressive campaign this year and we can defeat them only with men of courage whose reputation and character is generally appreciated. Personally I want to thank you for your loyalty in the past.

With every good wish for re-nomination and re-election, I am,

Sincerely,
(Signed) JOSEPH W. MARTIN, JR.

These are serious and momentous days and there is no substitute for experience.

I will appreciate your support and vote in the coming Primaries.

LOUIS E. GRAHAM
Member of Congress.

He was captured while sleeping off intoxication in the North Jefferson street bus station by Policemen Haering, Birt and Kovach shortly after 6:30 a. m.

According to Jack Chadbolt, night attaché of the Eakin Service station, Grant and Sampson streets, a man at 3:30 a. m. requested him to give him greenbacks for small change. The request was refused.

At 6:30 a. m. Chadbolt informed police he discovered a glass broken in the front door of the Grant cafe on Grant street. Upon investigation, police were told by Proprietor William Joseph that the cigarette and pin-ball machines had been broken into and looted of cash.

Brooks was identified by Chadbolt as the man who had gone to the station and asked him to exchange greenbacks for the small change he carried, police report. When searched $41.50, a Sunbeam electric razor and a partly consumed fifth of whiskey were found on Brooks.

Captain McMullen said he would be charged with the Grant street cafe burglary some time today before a local alderman.

economic order must be subordinated."

Methodist women were urged to interest themselves in government, and to register and vote. The convention adopted the "National Citizens Roll Call of Methodist Women" movement.

WHALE PLAY

NEWPORT BEACH, Cal.—(INS)—Three playful whales were just as curious about four men in a boat as the quartet was in watching the seagoing mammals. One whale dove under the 21-foot cabin cruiser, lifted it completely out of the water and whacked at it a couple of times with its tail. Another cruiser rescued the four men from the water and towed the crippled boat back to Newport harbor.

Feather-bedding scheme of Firemen's union to put an additional fireman on Diesel locomotives has been

CONSIDERED TWICE!

Fact-finding Boards appointed by Presidents Roosevelt and Truman have said these demands were "devoid of merit" and they were.

REJECTED TWICE!

Now the Firemen's leaders seek to paralyze railroad transportation to compel the railroads to employ a wholly unnecessary additional fireman to ride on Diesel locomotives. This scheme is plain.

FEATHER BEDDING!

Leaders of the Firemen's union have called a nation-wide strike starting with four great railroads on April 26th. These railroads are the New York Central, Pennsylvania, Santa Fe, and Southern.

The Union claim that a second fireman is needed on grounds of safety is sheer hypocrisy. Safety has been dragged into this dispute only in an unsuccessful effort to give a cloak of respectability to vicious feather-bedding demands.

After a careful study of the first demands of this Union a presidential fact-finding board on May 21, 1943, reported to President Roosevelt that there was no need for an extra fireman on Diesel locomotives.

Again, on September 19, 1949, after a second hearing on the Union leader's demands, a second board reported to President Truman that "There presently exists no need for an additional fireman. Upon either the ground of safety or that of efficiency or economy of operation."

SAFETY RECORD OF DIESELS IS OUTSTANDINGLY GOOD.

Although the railroads accepted the Board's findings, the Union leaders have brazenly rejected them. They represent that an extra fireman is needed for "safety reasons". Here's what the board had to say on that point:

"The safety and on-time performance of Diesel electric locomotives operated under current rules have been notably good."

"Upon careful analysis of the data submitted on safety, we have concluded that no valid reasons have been shown as a support for the Brotherhood proposal under which a fireman would be required to be at all times continuously in the cab of road Diesels. The proposal must be rejected."

The real reason behind these demands is that the Union leaders are trying to make jobs where there is no work. In other words, a plain case of "feather-bedding".

The railroads have no intention of yielding to these wasteful, make-work demands.

"SAFETY RECORD OF DIESELS IS OUTSTANDINGLY GOOD"

Presidential fact-finding board's report.

Read these excerpts from official reports of Presidential Fact-Finding Boards.

"The safety record of Diesels is outstandingly good, and it follows that the safety rules now applicable have produced good results."

"The safety and on-time performance of Diesel-Electric locomotives operated under current rules indicate that Diesel electric operation has been safer than steam locomotive operation."

Remember! These are not statements of the railroads. They are just a few of the many similar conclusions reached by President Truman's fact-finding board which spent months investigating the claims of the union leaders.

Claims Profits
On Sub-LeaseTheatre Company
Is Sued For $1512

Erick H. Scarazzo has entered suit against the Monessen Amusement company for $1,512 he claims due him as rentals on a sub-lease on a South Jefferson street property.

In February, 1937, he asserts he leased the property located at South Jefferson street and Market alley for the sum of $50 per month. In 1946 the Monessen Amusement company purchased the property and according to Mr. Scarazzo continued the lease and collected rents for it.

Mr. Scarazzo says he sub-leased the property for a total of $252 per month. On October 1, 1949, he was ordered to vacate the property as the theatre company had leased the property to the Castle Buick company.

He claims $1,512 is due him being the money he would have gotten from the sub-lease deal.

EFFICIENT COWS
FRESHEN REGULARLY

Regular freshening—at about 12-month intervals—with a 2-month rest period each year has a direct bearing on efficient and economic milk production, particularly as milk prices decline.

Cows must be bred at proper times and settle promptly. The dairy farmer can help in this respect. If cows have difficulty in calving, do not clean properly, discharge abnormally at time of heat, or fail to settle on third service the thing to do is call a veterinarian. Since some cows do not return in heat even though not with calf, the safe thing to do is to have a veterinarian check to see whether cows are with calf if they do not return in heat ten weeks following service. It is best to know definitely as soon as possible whether they are with calf.

Keep a record of heat periods, whether the cow is bred or not, and know when she is due to return in heat. Breed 50 to 75 days after calving. This permits 2 or 3 services, if necessary, without too much loss of time in calving schedule. Also keep a record of each cow's breeding efficiency from year to year to avoid recurring mistakes on those hard to settle. Preserve the stable breeding chart on which technicians list these records in artificial breeding.

CHEMICAL TREATMENTS
ERADICATE TERMITES

Three different chemicals are helpful for the control of termites which during March and April may be seen about buildings in swarms. They are attracted to the light, and after a short time pair off, shed their wings, and attempt to establish new colonies.

Sometimes mistaken for ants, matured termites have black bodies not pinched at the waistline (like ants) and four long, gray wings twice as long as the body. Ants have a wasp-like waistline and wings only slightly longer than the body.

Termites cause considerable damage each year, and over a period of several years can cause extensive damage to wooden portions of buildings. They live in the ground (workers never come out in the open) and seldom are noticed except when they swarm in the spring.

Where termites infest a building, try to locate the colony. Scrape loose the earthen tubes through which they travel to break contact between the colony and their food supply. Replace badly infested wood and treat colony areas with one of the following chemicals:

"Pentachlorophenol"—one gallon of 5 per cent solution treats 5 cubic feet of soil. "Cresote"—Dilute one part of cresote with three parts of fuel oil or used crankcase oil and apply 1 gallon of the mixture to 5 cubic feet of soil. "Orthodichlorobenzene"—Use full strength, 1 gallon to 10 cubic feet of soil.

Chemical treatments applied to the soil do not give permanent protection but will kill all termites present and will offer protection for 5 years or longer. To apply these poisons to the soil, dig a foot-wide trench 2½ feet deep along the foundation wall in the vicinity of the colony, and long enough to include the entire infested areas. Sprinkle a small amount of chemical on the bottom of the trench and refill the trench in layers, dosing each layer with chemical at recommended rates.

DOCTOR DIES OF WOUNDS

PITTSBURGH, April 22.—(INS)—Dr. John D. Kistler, 64, a member of the staff of the Shadyside hospital in Pittsburgh since 1910, died yesterday in the hospital of a bullet wound in the head.

Police said the wound apparently was self-inflicted.

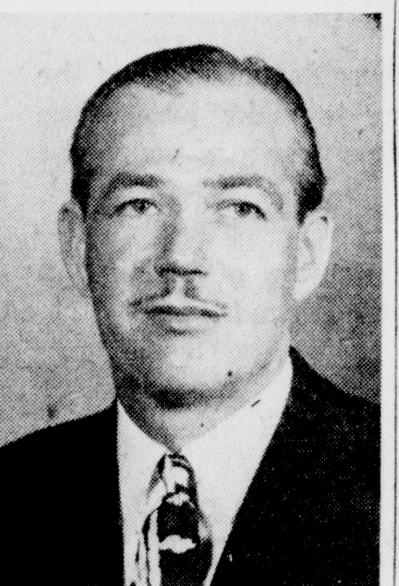

Dr. Kistler was born in Shenandoah, Pa., and was graduated from Dickinson college in 1904. He received his medical degree at Hahnemann Medical college in Philadelphia in 1910.

A doctor says nearly 200,000 working days are lost yearly in the United States because of illness resulting from burn.

THE FAMILY
SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

THE "ONE-MAN" CHILD

Owners speak proudly of their "one man" dogs. It pleases a person's vanity to know that he's been singled out for the exclusive affection of Fido or Rover.

But what about Mary and Johnny? Some fathers and mothers appear to get deep satisfaction out of the fact that their youngster clings to them and will have nothing to do with other people. Sometimes indeed, it is a matter of family pride that children, even up to their teens, prefer to be with their parents and have few friends of their own.

Close parent-child relations surely are not to be condemned. But if they are exclusive, if they shut out other people, the youngsters are being badly prepared to live in today's world. In our kind of society it is most important that we know how to work and live with others. There is no possibility, as there may have been in pioneer days, that we can be isolated from others without bringing to ourselves maladjustment and unhappiness.

The "one man" child idea, no matter how it may please parents' vanity, is sure to be a grave liability to the youngster involved. (Copyright, 1950, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

ANIMAL DISEASE

LARAMIE, Wyo.—(INS)—A Saratoga, Wyo., veterinarian says farmers and ranchers should have a better understanding with veterinarians and with research and diagnostic laboratories. Dr. R. E. Dr. Pierson showed pictures of animals afflicted with warts, ringworm, lumpy jaw, woody tongue, calf diptheria, necrotic stomatitis, footrot, anaplasmosis, swamp fever, navel or joint disease, shipping fever, water belly, X disease, and bricket disease.

SCHOOL TRENDS

MINNEAPOLIS.—(INS)—The "window monitor," a time-honored post for teacher's favorite, is doomed to extinction if America's educators have their way. The scientific age has caught up with this remaining vestige of old-style school days says R. H. Jacobs, of the Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator company. More than 10,000 school superintendents have specified individual classroom thermostats to replace the window monitor's job of regulating class room temperature, among those advanced ideas for the "ideal school" of tomorrow, he explains.

Ex-Brooklyn Relief Pitcher Faces Suit

NEW YORK, April 22.—(INS)—Ex-Brooklyn relief pitcher Hugh Casey entered a vigorous denial today to the charge of a 25-year-old brunette that he fathered her baby boy.

Hilda Weissman in a suit filed in New York's Special Sessions court said the portly Casey had promised to divorce his wife and marry her. She demanded support for the child.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of the pitcher, who is now hurrying for the Atlanta, Ga., Crackers of the Southern Association. Casey said in Atlanta:

"I know nothing about the matter. I plan to talk with my New York lawyer later on."

Revenue Losses Offset Cut In Government Expenses

WASHINGTON, April 22.—(INS)—The budget bureau estimated that the administration has cut government expenses this year by more than one billion dollars, but said the saving was almost entirely offset by revenue losses.

The bureau estimated that expenditures for the 1950 fiscal year, which ends June 30, will total 42 billion dollars instead of the 43.3 billions estimated by President Truman.

However, this saving of 1.3 billion dollars was almost entirely offset by a reduction in estimated receipts of 1.2 billions. The budget bureau stated that receipts for 1950 fiscal year will total 36.6 billions instead of 37.8 billions previously estimated.

The bureau, therefore, set the prospective deficit for the year at 5.4 billions, or 100 million dollars less than the 5.5 billion dollars estimated by the president.

However, the budget bureau estimated that the deficit for the 1951 fiscal year beginning July 1, will be 1.1 billion dollars more than forecast by the president. It predicted a 1951 deficit of 6.2 billions instead of 5.1 billions.

The revised figures were prepared at the request of Chairman Cannon (D), Mo., of the House

'Glacier Priest' Says Alaska Not Ready For Statehood

PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—(INS)—Rev. Bernard R. Hubbard, S. J., "The Glacier Priest," said he does not believe Alaska is ready for statehood.

Father Hubbard, who has spent 23 years exploring Alaska and the Arctic regions, declared statehood would mean excessive taxation for Alaska's 90,000 people.

"Alaska is an abnormal welfare state and there is great danger that if statehood is granted, an unhealthy political machine would be built up."

Father Hubbard will testify before a Senate committee in Washington next week and said he would suggest that statehood for Alaska "would be economically unsound for the time being and that it should not be railroaded through."

Co-eds Take Honors For Scholarship

Co-eds at Westminster college are decidedly superior to the male college populations in the scholarship department, according to figures released today by Miss Isabel Ramsey, college recorder.

All seven of the co-ed social groups ranked higher than the top fraternity. Highest sorority was Beta Sigma Omicron with an average of 2.13. Sigma Nu, the highest mens' group maintained a 1.8 average. An average of "three" would be perfect.

For the first semester of 1949-50 the all-women average was 1.819, compared to an all-men average of 1.584, and an all-college average of 1.679.

Three seniors were awarded scholarships for graduate study at an honors convocation at the college yesterday. They are Jean Swindler, New Wilmington; Glenn Reed, Mahoningtown; and Carolyn Holub, Pittsburgh.

A mathematics award went to Barbara Williams of Pittsburgh and the freshman writing award to Paul Talley of Oil City.

Former Resident To Be Secretary To Church Editor

Miss Anna L. Stephens, who served as secretary of Epworth Methodist church during the pastorate of Rev. George R. D. Braun, will graduate in June from the Evanston Collegiate Institute in Evanston, Ill. She has accepted a position as secretary to Dr. T. Otto Nail, editor of the Christian Advocate.

Miss Stephens is the daughter of Mrs. Jennie M. Stephens and the late Robert J. Stephens of Reno, Pa. She has been active in youth programs in the Erie conference in both Brookville and Grove City districts. After leaving her post at Epworth church she went to Evanston, Ill., school and will be graduated with a Church Assistant Certificate. During her school career in Evanston she has been acting as part time secretary of the North Shore Methodist church in Glencoe, Ill.

LOCK OUT
BERKELEY, Cal.—(INS)—Officials of the Haws playing works in Berkeley arrived a work one morning recently to discover the offices had been burglarized—but no cash was missing. The safe is never locked—and the burglar apparently neglected to try opening the safe. Instead he spun the dial and locked himself out.

BRINGING UP FATHER

BY GEORGE McMANUS

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, April 22.—Beautiful Randy Stuart doesn't know whether she is coming or going, but even a near-sighted guy wearing smoked glasses could tell you at 100 paces which way she is headed.

Randy, a blue-eyed blonde who makes Jane Russell look like the Ringling Brothers' thin man, is having sweater trouble. Or rather, her studio is having sweater trouble.

The other day a memo from the front office command post of the 20th Century-Fox was delivered post-haste to the set where Randy was emoting for a new picture entitled "Stella."

Rather Detracting
The big bosses, after viewing "rushes" of the flicker, decided that the manner in which Randy filled her sweater detracted too much from the scene and that something had better be done about same immediately.

Miss Stuart's wardrobe girl was delegated the delicate duty of informing the shapely actress that her endearing young charms were not dramatic in quite the correct fashion.

Since Ra dy's curves are her own, the movie moguls suggested that the gal discard her sweater for an, uh, more comfortable blouse.

"You can't win!" snorted Randy. "I weighed in at 101 pounds several years ago when the studio first signed me. And the contract contained the provision that I must gain weight."

Very Honest
Randy happens to be as honest as she is pretty. Her nice distribution makes it not only a fight to gain weight but a mountainous chore to lose it.

In the event there are any statistical-minded gents in the audience, Randy's measurements include a 37-inch bust, a 22-inch waist and 35-inch hips. She is five-foot-four-inches tall in her bare feet and tips the scales at 113 pounds.

Randy revealed: "When I was 14 years old, after a summer of gorging on everything in sight, I weighed a monstrous 150 pounds. My schoolmates called me 'Tubby' and 'Fats' and a few other names I would like to forget.

"So I got rid of the surplus even faster than I had gained it. And when I started losing it I couldn't stop."

Miss Ann Sheridan, who is a pretty good actress herself, inquired: "How did you lose it?"

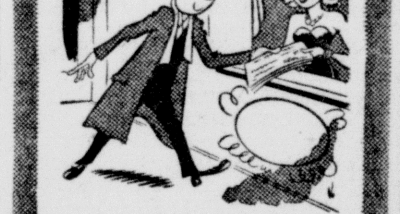

Miss Sheridan portrays Randy's big sister in "Stella."

Regains Weight
Randy said: "Just plain starving. Just that good old exercise—pushing away from the table."

"I got down to 125 pounds and thought that was an ideal weight, all things considered. But I kept right on going down like a fast elevator. When I hit 99 pounds I was really scared."

"Now I've finally gained back some of the weight I lost and it seems I fill a sweater too well."

"All I can say is—that's the nicest complaint that ever came my way!"

Business College Hears Fr. Inteso

Father Albert Inteso, assistant pastor of St. Vitus church, addressed students of New Castle Business college Friday morning.

Father Inteso spoke on conduct and morality in the business world.

He stressed the importance of sincerity of thought and action in business positions; the importance of honesty and fairness when dealing with your fellow man; giving value for value received; and an honest day's work for your wages.

Father Inteso left with the students the thought that too many of us are concerned with the material gains of life and are coasting aside our better judgement of conduct and morality to achieve financial independence. He encouraged education as a development and preparation for the future.

A short business meeting was conducted by the class president, John Razzano, prior to the talk by Father Inteso.

For every dollar spent on food in the United States in 1947, 90 cents was spent on government; in 1948, for every dollar spent for food, 98 cents was spent for government.

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK, April 22.—(INS)—When a lady snags a hole in her nylons, she's literally out on one limb.

To help lag the snag-rate, a New York firm today introduces a special mit for protecting hose while they're being put on.

The "Tubmit" is a white all-nylon mitten with gusseted thumbs and forefingers for easy manipulation. Each pair of mits fits any pair of hands, thanks to an elasticized wrist.

"Tubmits" get their name from their second practical purpose giving fingernails that sealed-in goodness during nightly nylon tubbings.

Thus if you're caught driving while drunk in San Mateo it is an automatic sentence of five days in jail. ## LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORD FOR TURNPIKE TOLL RETURNS

Pennsylvanians are proud of the Turnpike and justly so. One of the finest highways in the world, it provides speedy transportation through the scenic hills of Pennsylvania.

But the Turnpike requires tolls to keep it up and the record shows trucks are a major factor in that support.

A breakdown of receipts for a recent month show that trucks were twenty-three per cent of the traffic on the Turnpike. But in the matter of receipts the trucks provided seventy-seven per cent.

Without truck traffic over the Turnpike it might be difficult to keep up bond payments.

Major League Pitchers Start Bearing Down

By JOHN BARRINGTON
(International News Service Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, April 22.—Four days and a wagonload of base hits after the season's official opening, major league pitchers finally have begun to come into their own.

The first shutout of the campaign was served yesterday by Bob Rush, hurling Chicago Cubs right-hander, bested the St. Louis Cardinals and Harry Brecheen, 2 to 0, in the Cubs' home opener.

Rush Hurls Four-Hitter

Rush, who had hurled only one shutout in two previous seasons in the majors, gave up four hits and walked four. However, he left eight Cardinals stranded and only two got as far as third base.

The veteran Brecheen allowed only three hits, but two of them were triples by Hal Jeffcoat and Wayne Terwilliger, each of which led to a run.

That game and two others marked another pitching milestone. They signified the first times that both starting hurlers have managed to finish the game as well.

Westlake Slams Two

In one of those pitchers' battles, the Philadelphia Phillies and Boston Braves battled to a rain-curtailed eight-inning tie, 2 to 2. Ken Heintzelman gave the Braves five hits and Vern Bickford allowed the Phils seven.

Leo Durocher's hand-picked Giants now have been belted for 29 runs in 26 innings in three losing games.

Home runs were vital in yesterday's remaining National League contest. Ralph Kiner clouted his first of the season and Wally Westlake drove in four runs with two round-trippers as the Pittsburgh Pirates downed Cincinnati, 7 to 3.

In the American League, the undefeated Tigers' Virgil Trucks and the Chicago White Sox' Mickey Haefner hooked up in a nifty mound duel for seven innings. In the eighth, Vic Wertz hit a three-run homer and the Tigers won, 4 to 1. The biggest crowd of the day, 44,642, saw the game at Detroit.

Maurice McDermott scattered seven hits as the Boston Red Sox spoiled Connie Mack's 50th anniversary home opener with an 8 to 2 win over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The world champion New York Yankees continued to batter the ball with a good deal of verve. Yogi Berra, Tommy Byrne, Joe DiMaggio and Tommy Henrich all homered to account for half the New York runs in a 14 to 7 win over Washington.

Sophomore girls of New Castle senior high won the basketball finals in the annual intra-mural playoffs Thursday afternoon by defeating the seniors, 20 to 11.

The game marked the first time that sophomores have annexed the crown.

Members of the winning team were cheered to victory by many of their mothers and by their coach and teacher, Mr. Colter.

The winning team consisted of Evelyn Porter, Jane Reynolds, Vivian Rauss, Sherry Plonka, Charlene Prentiss, and Lianne Reiber.

Each member of the Cane links-men annexed the maximum number of three points in his individual match.

Coach Bob Mills team meets Butler here Monday in league play.

Haid defeated Eller, Quinn defeated Young, Bogdon defeated Pangburn, Glenn defeated Beigley and Laskey defeated Kolumban. All match scores were three to zero.

Kiel And Dunterman Hit Homers In Senators' Intra-Squad Game

(Special To The News)

GREENCASTLE, Pa., April 22.—Herman H. W. Kiel, the veteran outfielder-first sacker, and Albert Dunterman, rookie catcher optioned to the New Castle Senators from Harrisburg, smashed tremendous home run drives yesterday as the Regulars defeated the Yannigans in a five-inning camp battle, 4-2.

Kiel, 6 feet 197 pounds and Dunterman 6 feet 3 inches and weighing 195 pounds, have been hitting the ball hard in early drills. Kiel was with the Nats last year bashing 29 homers, while the Chicago boy caught at Iowa, Kansas last year in the KOM league.

Zedalis-Becka Shine

Manager Chuck Cronin used quite a few hurlers, with Stan Zedalis, 22, with Orlando, Florida last year, and George Becka, 20, with Zanesville, Ohio, last year, looking the best. Dick Janacone, of New Castle, Neal Marino, of Brooklyn, and Gordon Greene, Brushton, N. Y., also performed quite favorably on the mound. Greene and Marino are left-handers.

Dick Ackerman the 20 year old third sacker, and Danny Dondero, the 20 year old second baseman, continued to show plenty of sparkle in the youthful infield. Cronin is looking for a young left-handed all the way, first sacker, to complete his infield of accentuating youth.

Kelchner Reports

Larry Kelchner, a highly rated young shortstop with Waterbury in the Class B Colonial league last year, reported last night and will get his first workout today. He may be tried at the first base station.

Plenty of Hustle

W. W. Smeal, treasurer of the club is now at Greencastle for a short visit.

The Senators were unable to get a game for Sunday, but will concentrate on the two games Oil City next Tuesday and Wednesday. Cronin is particularly interested in the hustle being shown by his entire squad and most of all Wagner, Kiel, Churchill and Bilo.

Officials Will Visit

President Al Scarzoso and other New Castle Citizens Baseball, Inc., officials will visit the Greencastle Camp Sunday to see how things are progressing.

Attorney Frank Moretti, business manager, and his wife leave for Greencastle tonight for a week's stay. During his visit it is highly probable that Moretti will hand releases to several more players. Cronin is about ready to make a further cut in his squad to 25 players at the present time.

Moretti will stay at Greencastle until the squad breaks camp Sunday, April 30, to complete all business arrangements made with the Greencastle folks and to see that everything is taken care of.

Assault at Aqueduct

Horse Trainer Max Hirsch, who has brought many an unknown four-footed juvenile to a racing history's "Assault" from the King Ranch in Texas, became the biggest one-season money winner in the turf had ever known up to that time. It was back in June 1946.

Assault, who was carrying 126 pounds (ten pounds over the Canadian owned "Winfields" who came in second) romped home 5 lengths in the lead, capturing the $40,700 Dwyer Stakes, bringing his total earnings for the season to $339,720. This had all been accomplished in the short space of two months! Assault had progressed through one section of the "Experimental," the "Wood Memorial," the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness, the Belmont Stakes and now the valuable Dwyer Stakes. Assault ran the mile and a quarter in two minutes and 4/5 seconds. It had been an easy gallop for him from start to finish and in the home stretch when Jockey Mehrtens called for a "little more speed, please" Assault obliged without any difficulty at all.

HERE and THERE IN SPORTS LAND

SO FAR, trout season has been nothing to rave about. Weather conditions have prevented good catches. Most trout taken range in size from 7 to 10 inches. Some good catches of Brook trout have been reported. This is due to the fact, Brook trout will bite under varying water conditions, whereas Brown and Rainbows won't. The best catch reported, so far, was a 26-inch Brownie taken by Stanley Rupsie, Pittsburgh, from Pine Creek, in Warren county. Probably the best excuse for the poor catch lies in the temperature of the water and the air. Temperatures of several northern Pennsylvania streams were near freezing. Some streams recorded less than 32, and few were above that temperature. Authorities believe the best fishing is in streams of 40 to 55 degrees. Below or above that, according to Carl Rogan, Pittsburgh, I.N.S. outdoorwriter, there may be some fair fishing. When it reaches 66 degrees, fishing is as poor as it is at 32, when catches are far and few between. In addition to the cold water, many anglers have been hampered by cold toes and hands.

Managers of league teams have a duty to perform, and it should be performed prior to the opening of the leagues. Each team should have a scorer, and each game, an official scorer, who should be instructed how to score and report a game, accurately. Nothing should be left to the imagination of The News' sports staff. It is only reasonable to believe that, a score-sheet, legibly written and accurately compiled, will receive preference for publication. The staff has not time to telephone various persons to ascertain important facts concerning games. A report, or score-sheet, will be dropped into The News office mail slot immediately after the game. The home team should be held responsible for this service. Summer-time sports are voluminous. Space will be in demand, hence, in order to give a fair shake to all, it may be necessary some days, to "boil down" accounts. However, all local sports will be published, providing they are submitted the same day the contest is played, and, if legibly and accurately compiled.

First two innings of the Yankee-Bosox opener in Boston required an hour to play. Eddie Dingley and Richard Beisheim, who submitted brief articles concerning Bobby Lowe and Charlie Bennett, respectively, baseball heroes of yesteryear, have received autographed photos from Lowe. . . . Thirteen auto driver will be making their first appearance in the Indianapolis speed classic, May 30. . . . Talking of heavyweights, nine members of the 1950 Northwestern U football team, weigh 220, or more. . . . Clarence Demar, the printer, raced seven times in the Boston marathon. . . . Chuck Drazenovich, Penn State's heavyweight boxing champion, is in demand. 'Pro' grid teams want him, likewise several boxing managers. . . . Mercer county sportsmen and farmers will meet in Mercer county courthouse, at 8 o'clock, April 26, to form a plan of weeding out culprits responsible for any dissension that has arisen. The farmers supply the hunting grounds and the sportsmen furnish the dollars for rabbits, birds and other wildlife.

Robinson Scores TKO In 3rd Round

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—(INS)—Ray "Sugar" Robinson rolled his merry fistie way today with still another victory added to his impressive record.

The world welterweight boxing champ made short work of Cliff Beckett of Toronto, Can., in their scheduled 10-rounder last night in Columbus, garnering a third-round technical kayo decision.

Beckett lasted just long enough to go down twice, both times for a nine count. Referee Lou Luzader called a halt to the proceedings when the Canadian began to get that "glassy" look.

Harry Papacharalambos, Penn State 130-pounder, owns what is believed to be the longest name in college boxing. "Pap" says his name originally carried four more letters.

New Wilmington Drops Union, 6-2

New Wilmington high school opened its 1950 baseball season Friday afternoon with a 6-2 win over Union at New Wilmington.

The Greyhounds scored all of their runs in the first three innings, two of them in the first inning on a double by Tom Hutchison and a home run by pitcher Bill Young down the right field foul line.

New Wilmington scored three more in the second—all unearned. Young allowed the Scotties only two hits—singles by Bob Klenotic and Lou Simpson—and fanned 13. Pete Barber went all the way for Union and except for poor support and that first inning home run, pitched good ball.

Hunting Death Toll In State 25

HARRISBURG, April 22.—(INS)—The State Game Commission today reported 25 hunters were killed during the 1949 season.

Ten fatal wounds were self-inflicted, the commission's final report for the season disclosed. The total was two more than in 1948.

Four hundred and fifty-three hunters were injured, the commission said, 71 of them through self-inflicted wounds.

One fatal accident thus was registered for every 33,014 licenses, according to the report, and one non-fatal accident for every 1,822 licenses. In 1949, 825,353 licenses were issued.

The report also listed the following final game kills reported for the year:

Deer, 46,602 antlered and 34,212 antlerless; bears, 411; rabbits, 5,948; Hungarian partridges, 92; quail, 573,267; raccoons, 61,007; wild turkeys, 6,885; ruffed grouse, 36,304; ringneck pheasants, 343,767; quail, 5,181; woodcocks, 26,748; rails, gallinules and coots, 6,041; wild waterfowl, 59,103; woodchucks, 265,135; and doves, 10,840.

Villanova college football coach Jim Leonard rates guard Nick Liotta as the finest all-around collegiate lineman he has ever seen. The reserve play of the husky Everett, lineman was a vital factor in the success of the injury riddled Main Liners during the 1949 campaign.

TRACK CAREER of Fred Johnson, Michigan State's cinder star, apparently is ended as doctors confirm that Johnson has a torn tendon. His leg was placed in a cast. Johnson, broad jumper and hurdler, holds the I. C. 4-A and N.C.A.A. broad jump titles and was star of team. (International)

Pupils At Oak Street School Display English Gifts

Sixty-five fifth grade students of Oak Street school aided in creating more "good will" between United States and England.

Miss Helen McCurley, fifth grade teacher, corresponded with friends in England who thought it would be an excellent idea to have the children write letters to "pen pals" in each country. Shortly after school opened in September this project was undertaken, with the result that the mailman has almost worn a path to the Oak Street school with boxes and many letters from the little friends from overseas.

Several Boxes

At Christmas and during the year several boxes of candy and clothing were sent, along with the usual letters and pictures from the Oak Street group. Parents of the English children reply with letters filled with gratitude for the gifts, which to the country are a luxury.

Now on display at the school are tables of articles which have been sent in return from the English students. Many post cards of lovely ancient cathedrals and scenes are included in the list. Funny books and English stationery are shown, along with dainty hair ribbons, tiny lapel pins and hankies. Picture puzzles depict scenes of Robin Hood and England. It was strange seeing a book of "Black Beauty" being sent as a gift from England as it is also a well-known child's book in this country.

In this collection two displays were outstanding because they were unusual. A group of one large and four small glass swans had been sent to one girl. They are fashioned on the order of the glass swans filled with tinted water that can be purchased in this country. Another display featured three hand-made place mats, which had been woven by a ten-year-old English girl. In this same collection was a handmade apron with tiny intricate stitches, which proved that much time had been spent on the article.

The students have waited eagerly for each box or letter to come. As much as each child enjoys receiving mail, the class is only too happy to see what others are sent if they have none of their own. They know their turn will come again.

Receives Letter

Miss McCurley received an interesting letter from the fifth grade teacher at the English school. In part she states, "I really don't know how to thank you for all the wonderful parcels which have arrived during the last few weeks. It is just like Christmas all over again. We had great excitement. I made the fudge last night, ready to take to school Monday. A friend of mine gave me four ounces of butter to make it, so it ought to be quite good. I know the children will be waiting at the school gate.

"It was really grand of you to do all this for us and we are more than grateful. We should also like to thank all the children and parents who so kindly sent presents and clothing. Mr. Round, my headmaster, wishes to thank everybody very much indeed for their kindness."

"We received another package containing puzzles, presents and fudge. Even the postman when he delivered it remarked, 'Another from America.' I must tell you about two boys who were so excited when I told them they would be getting some gum they jumped right over two chairs to run and tell their pals the good news. Everyday they ask, 'When shall we get another letter,' or 'May I write to my friend in America.'"

If these children are indicative of the future, they will surely grow up with this same feeling of love and sharing. If more people had the same attitude as these fifth grade students of Oak Street and the English pupils, there would be little cause for conflicts.

CANDLES AT HOME WEDDING

"I am planning a home wedding at 11 o'clock in the morning. Is it correct to use candles at this time of the day; and if so, should they be lighted?"

Answer: If you mean candles for the improvised altar, by all means use them—lighted. Altar candles are lighted during any service, regardless of the time. Candles should not appear on a luncheon table, unless the dining room is without daylight. They may be used during a formal afternoon tea when the shades are drawn.

Question: What kind of clothes should be worn by men and women attending a cocktail party from 4 to 7 o'clock?

Answer: Informal day clothes—street-length dress and hat by the women and business clothes for the men is the proper attire for this type of informal afternoon function.

Question: Must the best man send an individual gift to the bride or may he contribute toward a joint gift from his family?

Answer: He should send an individual gift to the bride.

Question: I frequently see people remove the right glove to shake hands. Is this necessary?

Answer: A man meeting a woman on the street should remove his right glove before shaking hands. Gloves worn with formal clothes—at the opera, a wedding, a ball, etc., should not be removed for this purpose. A man should extend his gloved hand when the gloves are intended to be worn indoors. A woman need never remove her glove to shake hands, regardless of the circumstances.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.
